MAGIC MONSTER SHOW - Weaver Room, Emerson Center

The Magic Monster Show: Earth Day Edition!

Roxy and Boomer, Random Acts of Silliness' monster mascots, invite you to a special Earth Day Magic Monster Show, where you can participate in the magical mayhem of stories being made up on the spot! In this high-energy slapstick show, our team of improvisers will bring your ideas to life on stage: flying octopi, edible rainbows and singing monkeys? You never know what will happen when kids call the shots!

Showtimes 10 am and 10:30 am

Age: Fun for anyone, but geared towards kids ages 3 - 10

Participation: Lots of chances to offer suggestions (and occasionally get on stage) will arise, but participation is never pressured or required!

Location: Weaver Room (second floor of the Emerson Center)

Gallatin Valley Earth Day Festival - Children's Events

Emerson Center for the Arts & Culture Children's Activities

ADOPT A TREE

11 am on the Emerson Lawn

Join the Bozeman Parks & Rec on the Emerson lawn to plant and adopt a tree to take home for future planting. We love trees in Parks & Rec and believe in planting more and caring for our trees. Tree planting will start at 11am and go until supplies run out. We look forward to celebrating Earth day with you all of you.

The activity will have 3 stations:

1. Decorating pots
2. Planting tree
3. Tree care and adoption

EARTH DAY PASSPORT - PRIZES!

Pick up a passport at the Gallatin Valley Earth Day festival information table, visit exhibits listed on the passport, get a stamp, turn in your passport at the information table and win a prize (plus put in for the grand prize drawing)
