

About Todd Wilkinson

Bozeman-based Todd Wilkinson has been a journalist for 40 years. With his work appearing in National Geographic, The Guardian and other publications, he also is author of several award-winning books on topics ranging from Ted Turner to Jackson Hole Grizzly 399. He is founder of Yellowstonian (yellowstonian.org), a non-profit conservation journalism site devoted to exploring the wonders and threats to the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem. Todd is author a new 2025 edition to his award-winning book, Ripple Effects: How to Save Yellowstone and America's Most Iconic Wildlife Ecosystem. Most recently, he wrote a foreword to a new unprecedented scientific analysis on the consequences of sprawl on Greater Yellowstone. It can be viewed at yellowstonesprawl.com. At the Bozeman event, you will also hear from scientists who will speak to how growth is threatening our world-renowned wildlife and what citizens can do to save it.
